ST. MARY ARMENIAN APOSTOLIC CHURCH
ONE CHURCH. ONE FAITH. ONE FAMILY.
Those who are planted in the house of the LORD
Shall flourish in the courts of our God. Psalm 92:13

Dear Parishioners,

God has blessed us with another great year, full of challenges and resplendent with rewards and memories that enrich us both spiritually and culturally. It is a great opportunity for us to be thankful for every good and perfect gift that is given us from above, "coming down from the Father of light." The greatest of those gifts is our Church.

Our Church is our spiritual birthplace, a place where we come to be nurtured, grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, and submit our lives to His will, both individually and as a parish. Our Church is also our cultural birthplace, where we come to rejoice in our heritage, and where we come to preserve our mother tongue and God-given identity.

Our Church is a place where we come to learn about our faith, and the things that are most important to grow in our faith. This is the place where we share one faith, and our faith becomes stronger as we experience God in all of the stages of our life. Our faith sustains us through good and bad, and our Church is the place where we connect with our Lord and with each other to share our faith.

Our Church is also our family. It is here that we come to discover our identity and grow closer together as brothers and sisters in Christ. The Church is where we bring our children to learn about the riches of their Christian and Armenian faith. It is a safe haven for future generations that guides them to be stronger and to uphold higher ethics and values throughout their lives.

It is my hope that the memories and accomplishments contained in this book will serve as a joyful reminder of the experiences that bind us together as a community – One Church, One Faith, One Family.

May Our Lord Jesus Christ bless our Church, increase our faith, and unite us as a part of His household.

Prayerfully,
Fr. Hovsep Karapetyan

ACYOA SKI TRIP

On the weekend of January 10-12, our ACYOA Seniors went to Deep Creek, MD for a ski trip. Here is a summary of events by Chairman, Aras Mermer: "We all stayed in one house together. On Saturday morning we all had a Bible Study lead by Der Hovsep via Skype. It was about adding saltiness to our life and how we could all definitely use more. It was a great way to start the weekend because it helped us to remember why we come together for trips like this, which is to come closer with God and be better Christians in our everyday lives.

We had alot of fun that weekend, we had a pool table in the house which everyone enjoyed alot, also a hot tub which was nice. We also made sure to pray before every meal we had so we could thank God for what we had in front of us and everything he has done for us. This type of fellowship not only brought all of us closer together but also brought us closer to God at the same time. Everyone came out of the weekend feeling much better about where they are with their Christianity and what needs to be done to preserve it."

VARTANANTS DAY PERFORMANCE BY KNIGHTS AND DAUGHTERS OF VARTAN AT ST. MARY

Every February, the Armenian people remember the Vartanants sacrifice by commemorating the Feast of St. Vartan the Captain and his 1,036 Companions. On this occasion, the Ani lodge of Knights and Daughters of Vartan sponsored a play on the battle of Avarayr. This annual play celebrated Vartantantz Day and commemorated the sacrifice that Vartan and his compatriots made giving their lives for the protection of their identity and faith. As recorded by the historian Yeghishe, the soldiers took an oath to fight the enemies of truth: "We are ready for persecution and death and every affliction and torture for the sake of the holy churches which our forefathers entrusted to us by the power of the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, whereby we were reborn to the one hope of faith by baptism in Christ Jesus. In the same fashion we wish to renew ourselves by torments and blood. For we recognize the Holy Gospel as our Father, and the apostolic catholic church as Mother. Let no evil partition come between us to separate us from her."

The beautiful play, staged by The Knights and Daughters of Vartan, was greatly enjoyed by Shnorhali School students, parents, teachers and for all who were present. ST. MARY WOMEN'S GUILD PARTICIPATES IN NATIONAL CATHEDRAL FLOWER MART

The Flower Mart is Washington's premier Spring outdoor family festival. It took place May 2 and 3. The event was organized by the Washington National Cathedral All Hallows Guild, which celebrated its 75th anniversary. Our Women's Guild Chair Mrs. Ani Derderian and Vice-Chair Mrs. Hripsime Sivaslian represented St. Mary Church with a beautiful composition of the "Tree of Life" decorated with pomegranate fruits, flowers, clay pots and an Armenian rug. The Pomegranate is the national fruit and symbol of Armenia. It represents fertility, abundance and marriage. One tradition involving pomegranates accepted in ancient Armenia was performed at weddings. A bride was given pomegranate fruit, which she threw against a wall, breaking it into pieces. Scattered pomegranate seeds ensured the bride future children. In Christianity, the pomegranate is a symbol of resurrection and the hope of eternal life. Because of its abundance of seeds, it also symbolizes royalty and the church. The clay pots and rug represent Armenia's traditional Folk Art.

ST. MARY PARISH COUNCIL RETAINING WALL PROJECT

If you look around the church landscaping you will probably notice some changes. The most significant change is the new retaining wall surrounding the property of our church. The project to replace the old and deformed wood guards around the church property was initiated by St. Mary Parish Council members. In the course of a couple of Saturdays, our Parish Council Chairman Onnik Sivaslian and Treasurer Jack Guiragossian, with the help of Luiz Gusmao, installed the stone retaining wall enhancing and beautifying our church landscaping. Special appreciation to our volunteers Onnik, Jack and Luiz for their hard work and dedication to the church.

The Centennial Central Committee, under the leadership of five Archbishops and Chairman Noubar Afeyan, met a number of times to plan commemorative events, some of which will take place in Washington, DC. In order to organize and coordinate those events local subcommittees have been formed under the auspices of St. Mary and Soorp Khatch Armenian Churches. Committee coordinator, Pamela Young continued by leading the discussion about each event specifically and giving a description and expectations for the different venues. The participants then were asked to volunteer by putting their names in one of the five subcommittees. The groups were formed and the following meeting date determined to be August 4th.

ACYOA JUNIORS GAME NIGHT

The ACYOA Jrs. Held their summer Game Night on July 25. Some 15 teens gathered at Garbis and Nadia Chubukian's house for a night of fellowship and entertainment. Those present truly enjoyed and appreciated the hospitality and kindness of the Chubukians who so willingly opened their home to our youth. And a special, well earned congrats to Armen Chubukian for "schooling" Der Hayr at FIFA World Cup 2014, winning in penalty shots. The ACYOA Juniors, ranging 13 to 17 years of age, provides a vehicle through which young people may express themselves and demonstrate their abilities, skills, interests, concerns, and faith; develop programs through which the young people may participate, receive information, experience meaningful relationships, feel a sense of belonging, and be exposed to the Armenian Christian faith and cultural heritage.

FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD

The feast of the Transfiguration was celebrated at St. Mary Armenian Church on July 27. Being one of the five major holy days or "Tabernacle Feasts" of the Armenian Church, its observance recalls Christ's ascent up Mount Tabor, accompanied by his disciples John, James, and Peter. At the mountain's summit, to the disciple's frightened amazement, Christ was transfigured in a blinding white light; the Old Testament figures Moses and Elijah emerged from the mists of time to confer with the Lord; and the voice of God boomed from out of the heavens to affirm Jesus as his Son.

The Badarak was officiated by Der Hovsep with the participation of St. Mary Choir, Deacons and Altar Servers. At the conclusion of the Badarak an Antastan service took place during which the four corners of the world were blessed. Before the Antastan Service Der Hayr asked parishioners also to pray for the peace and stability in the world, particularly for the Middle East.
In the month of July, the St. Mary's WED Fund Committee compiled its work by distributing generous scholarships to the Armenian youth living in the US and Canada. The WED Fund was established at St. Mary Armenian Church in 1998, thanks to the generosity of the late parishioner William Ervant Docter (WED), whose Last Will and Testament provided the financial means to support the higher education of many qualified Armenian Americans planning to pursue studies or training in United States or Canada. Since its inception, until the end of the fiscal year 2014, the WED Scholarship Committee awarded 367 scholarships, totaling $718,500.

The chairman of WED Fund Scholarship Committee is Mr. Raffi Karahisar and the members are: Mrs. Karen Manougian, Mr. Zaven Kalayjian, Mr. George Guiragossian and Mrs. Nevart Tahmazian.

The Committee makes its selections from a pool of qualified applicants with US citizenship, based solely on their financial need, academic excellence and their potential to serve the Armenian community.

Last year, the Committee had a total of 29 applications. Seventeen of the applicants received grants totaling $40,500. Four applicants were awarded the top prize of $4,000, two applicants received $3,000 each, seven applicants received $2,000, two applicants received $1,250 and two applicants received $1,000.
THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE CENTENNIAL PLANNED IN THE NATION'S CAPITAL

Leaders of the Armenian Church in the US have joined to plan a special Remembrance of the Armenian Genocide. Commemorating the passage of 100 years since the start of the first genocide of the 20th century, a schedule of events including an ecumenical prayer service at the National Cathedral, a memorial concert, public exhibitions, banquet dinner and a Divine Liturgy will take place from May 7 to 10, 2015, in Washington, DC.

His Holiness Karekin II, Supreme Patriarch and Catholicos of All Armenians, and His Holiness Aram I, Catholicos of the Great House of Cilicia, will both journey to the United States to lead and participate in the commemorative events.

In order to organize and coordinate the commemorative events in Washington, DC, local subcommittees had been formed. The second organizing meeting of subcommittees took place on August 4 at St. Mary Armenian Church, which was attended by some 40 community members and officiated by Archbishop Khajag Barsamian, Primate of the Eastern Diocese of the Armenian Church of America and Archbishop Oshagan Choloyan, Prelate of the Eastern Prelacy of the Armenian Apostolic Church of America, under the chairmanship of Dr. Noubar Afeyan.

DEACONS MINISTRY BBQ NIGHT

Our Deacon's Ministry gathered for a BBQ Night on August 7 at Sevan and Kerry Topjian residence. The evening was enjoyed through fellowship, good food and the hospitality of the hosts. Deacons discussed personal challenges and ways to help the community and church. The purposeful service of our Deacons is not limited only to serving on the Altar during the Sunday Badarak but also extend their ministry to the community at large by helping and assisting the Pastor. Some of the ministries discussed included visiting the sick, bringing shut-ins to Church on Sundays, making Nishkar and accomplishing other important tasks to serve our community.

The mission of the Deacons Ministry is "to faithfully serve God and His church under the direction of our Priest, and to minister to others, as witnesses of the truth and love of Jesus Christ through God's grace and the power of the Holy Spirit".
DEACONS NUSHKHAR MAKING

On August 9 the Deacons assisted Der Hayr in making Nushkhar. Nushkhar, the Communion bread, in the Armenian Tradition is made with flour and water. The deacons present the Nushkar to the celebrant at the beginning of the Badarak to be consecrated. Nushkar is also used by the Priest during home blessings which after the service is presented to the family and kept in the house as a sign of God's blessing. We thanked Dn. Mark Krikorian, Dn. Levon Barsoumian and Sub-Dn. Edwin Tilimian for their assistance in making Nushkhars.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE HOLY MOTHER-OF-GOD

Parishioners at St. Mary Church observed the church's name-day on Sunday, August 17 with services and a luncheon honoring one of the longtime members, Mr. Haig Ellian. Der Hovsep Karapetyan, celebrated the Divine Liturgy, performed the "Blessing of Grapes" service, and blessed the traditional madagh.

A child of Genocide survivors, Mr. Ellian studied journalism and law, and went on to have a successful career in the nation's capital. For more than two decades, he has hosted and produced the popular Montgomery County TV show "Focus with Haig Ellian." During the luncheon Mr. Jack Guiragosian served as the Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Onnik Sivaslian made the welcoming remarks, there were also remarks made by Miss Aghavni Ellian, the Honoree's sister, Mrs. Clara Andonian and Mr. Dean Shahinian. Der Hovsep presented the award to Mr. Ellian and delivered closing remarks. The traditional Madagh was donated and prepared by Avak and Elma Yepremian. The cake was donated by Mr. Rubic Movsessian and Classic Bakery. During the luncheon, parishioner Maral Sivaslian gave a presentation slide show highlighting her pilgrimage to the Holy Land in June. She shared her impressions and the rich spiritual experience that she gained.

ACYOA SENIOR TRIP TO LAKE NEEDWOOD

On Saturday, September 6, our St. Mary's ACYOA Seniors attended a hiking trip to Lake Needwood in Rockville, MD. After hiking around the lake for over an hour, they had a picnic where old and new members were able to socialize with each other and discuss their opinions on the Armenian Church and how they can make it more welcoming to those who feel that they don't understand the services very well. Der Hayr talked about giving a sort of lecture series on Badarak in order to encourage fellow ACYOA members to become more active in the church community. A Bible Study was also held during this trip. Der Hayr connected several stories from the Bible to modern day occurrences that everyone was able to relate to. The ACYOA also hosted Bible Studies in November. The group had a great time and encouraged old and new members to become active participants of the ACYOA.

WOMEN'S GUILD GENERAL MEETING

The Women's Guild General meeting took place on September 11. After the summer break, the women came together to discuss the upcoming events and activities. One of the main topics of the discussion was the upcoming Food Festival on Oct. 1-4. The Festival workshop schedule was finalized and the volunteer chairperson for each workshop was determined. Every year, our Women's Guild works very hard to prepare for this very important cultural and fundraising event for our community. As always, volunteers are welcomed during the workshops and Festival. The Women's Guild also discussed the Women's Guild Annual Assembly, which was planned for Washington, DC during the month of May, 2015. Members from different communities of the East Cost would be hosted by the Guild for the Annual Assembly. At the end of the meeting the Guild members helped with mailing of Food Festival flyer.
The Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross was celebrated at St. Mary Armenian Church on Sep. 14, with an Antasdan Service immediately following the Divine Liturgy and the Blessing of Madagh with a luncheon in the church hall afterwards.

The Armenian Apostolic Church celebrates the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross (Khachverats in Armenian) on the Sunday nearest to September 15. It is one of the five major feasts of the Armenian Church, and the most important of the four feasts of the Holy Cross. According to Armenian tradition, the first one to "exalt" the Cross was the Apostle James of Jerusalem, also known as the "Brother of the Lord."

After the Badarak an Antasdan service (blessing of the fields) was celebrated during which the processional cross adorned with basil (a symbol of royalty) was carried by Der Hayr and the four corners of the church were blessed as a sign of the sanctification of the world. This sweet-smelling plant is associated with the celebration of this Feast because in the early decades of Christianity, basil was a symbol of royalty, befitting the Savior who was crucified as a King.

Church traditions also recall a beautiful story of the miraculous growth of basil on the ground at the foot of the Cross of the Lord after it had been removed. Basil, according to pious traditions, continued to grow on that ground despite the faithful cutting and taking it home. The Madagh, donated by Mr. Zakar Shahverdian, was blessed in the church hall.

CELEBRATING ARMENIA'S INDEPENDENCE

Sunday, September 21, marked the 23rd anniversary of the establishment of the Republic of Armenia. Celebrations took place in the homeland and in Armenian communities across the diaspora. The rebirth of the Armenian homeland is one of the most momentous developments in the history of the Armenian people. Armenia's citizens voted for independence from the Soviet Union on September 21, 1991, and the resulting free republic became a member of the United Nations on March 2, 1992.

On Sunday, September 21, following the Badarak, our parish celebrated the "Order of Thanksgiving Prayer of the Republic of Armenia." Mr. Tigran Sargsyan, Ambassador of the Republic of Armenia to the US, and the entire Embassy staff; and Mr. Robert Avetisyan, Representative of the Nagorno Karabagh Republic to the US, were present to celebrate.

The preparation began at the end of August, with our Women's Guild creating a workshop schedule, a shopping list, determining event chairladies and other details in order to assure an organized and well-managed festival.

It was gratifying to observe the time and energy all of our volunteers invested in working and organizing the Food Festival, and it paid off. It is with great pride that we announced St. Mary’s 66th Annual Armenian Fall Food Festival as one of the most successful ones in recent years.

Levon and Mrs. Aline Barsoumian, after which all those in attendance enjoyed soujouk pizza. The Deacons rounded out the evening by discussing upcoming plans over kadaif! During the discussion, Deacons reviewed liturgical and sermon rules and procedures; and they considered, in cooperation with ACYOA, creating a welcoming theme to assist ushers during the service. An educational and inspirational lecture entitled "Treasure of the Armenian Literary Heritage in New York" took place at St. Mary's Church Hall on Sunday, October 19. After the celebration of Badarak, V. Rev. Fr. Daniel Findikyan, director of the Krikor and Clara Zohrab Information Center, spoke with passion about the riches and treasures of Armenian literature housed in New York City. Hayr Soorp assumed the role of the director of Zohrab Center in 2012. Since then, he has dedicated a tremendous amount of time studying and cataloging the books and manuscripts at the center. During the process, he made some remarkable discoveries. The center is a resource and research facility housed at the Diocesan Center in New York. The holdings of the center include extensive information on the Armenian Church, Armenian history, and Armenian politics and culture. The collection includes thousands of books, videos, maps, pictures, and other resources to help researchers, academics, teachers, and the society at large learn about the Armenian community and its rich history. Some 50 parishioners greatly enjoyed the wonderfully enlightening and culturally uplifting presentation and slide show by V. Rev. Fr. Daniel. The event was initiated and sponsored by St. Mary Women's Guild as a part of the October Cultural Month celebration.

ACYOA HALLOWEEN PARTY
The Halloween party was a great success. All the children were dressed up and ready for a great time. Some activities included musical chairs, three-legged race, and the donut eating contest. The children were very excited about the pinata. The candy spilled out fast due to their excitement and force when hitting it with a bat. The children were very competitive and excited to play musical chairs. We played many rounds to their favorite Halloween songs. During the freeze dance, danced along to the music and then completely freeze when the music stopped. Overall, the party was a terrific success and the children (along with the parents) enjoyed themselves greatly. The 2015 plan is to have a Halloween party with a theme of Armenian historical figures. The children will dress up as their favorite Armenian historical figure.
St. Mary parishioners and friends enjoyed a wonderful lecture about Mihran Mesrobian’s architecture in Washington, DC, and through his formative years in Turkey. The lecture was delivered by Mesrobian’s granddaughter, Dr. Carolyn Hickerman, an art and architectural historian. She is working on a book and exhibition about her grandfather’s career.

Mihran Mesrobian (1889-1975) began a promising career as a municipal architect in Smyrna/Izmir, then as assistant to the palace architect in Istanbul. Surviving the Armenian Genocide and WWI as an army corps engineer, Mesrobian immigrated with his family to the US in 1921, quickly becoming chief designer for Harry Wardman, the preeminent real estate developer in Washington during the 1920s. Mesrobian’s 40-year career includes signature hotels, office buildings, apartments, and residences constructed for a variety of socio-economic constituencies in diverse neighborhoods, many now landmark. His final project was designing the sanctuary for St. Mary Armenian Apostolic Church, which due to some issues was not fully realized.

Our utmost gratitude goes to Mr. Avak Yepremian for overseeing the project with much diligence and responsibility.

The youth took on the challenge and tried to raise the $10,500 during the school year. A generous parishioner offered to provide matching funds up to $5,250 for the effort. The first fundraising event by our Shnorhali School students, which was an art show, sale, and auction took place after the Badarak on November 23. The theme of the children's art was, "My dream home in Armenia." The art was displayed in the church hall and auctioned off during the coffee hour. An incredible $1540 was raised during the auction. Mesrop Nazaryan and other distinguished guests.

During the luncheon, Mr. Onnik Sivaslian served as the MC. A beautiful musical program was performed by Mrs. Elina Ter Harutjunova Nostrant (piano), who played arrangements by Armenian composers. H. E. Dr. Tigran Sargsyan, Ambassador of the Republic of Armenia to the U.S., made his remarks and congratulated St. Mary and its parishioners on the wonderful occasion. As a part of the celebration, two parishioners were awarded with the 2014 Pastoral Award, Mr. Avak Yepremian and Mr. Boris Ghazarian. During the luncheon Mr. Yepremian's daughter and Mr. Ghazarian’s son shared their thoughts about their fathers, after which Fr. Hovsep Karapetyan gave his message and expressed his admiration to these dedicated parishioners and their families. He then invited Archbishop Aykazian and Ambassador Sargsyan for the honor of presenting the awards to the Yepremians and the Ghazarians. The wonderful celebration was concluded with remarks and benediction by Archbishop Aykazian.
ACYOA Junior Christmas Party

The St. Mary ACYOA Juniors held their Annual Christmas Party on Dec. 21. Over 25 people gathered to celebrate the season of Advent and share the joy of the Christmas spirit. Hosted by the Hakopian Family, the teens enjoyed dinner followed by games and fun. Before dessert, Fr. Hovsep delivered a meaningful message on the meaning of Advent, challenging teens to prepare their hearts and minds for the coming of Christ. The evening ended with a group photo. The ACYOA Juniors are looking forward to many more activities in the new year, including a Poon Paregantan Dance.

Shnorhali School Family Night and Table Tennis Championship

The Shnorhali School Family Night took place on December 12. The children and their parents came together to enjoy an evening of fellowship and games. The second annual ping pong contest took place during the night. After a long and strenuous competition, the winner was finally determined and this year’s trophy went to Sevag Amalian. Thanks to Yervand Khoranian and the dedicated parents of the Shnorhali School for organizing the Family Night and Table Tennis championship.

PASTORAL CARE: HOME AND HOSPITAL VISITS
The clergy are always available and can visit homebound and hospitalized parishioners. If you or someone you know is ill or hospitalized and would like to be visited, please call the church office at (202) 363-1923. Please note: when asked about your religion at a hospital, patients should list themselves as “Armenian Orthodox” or “Armenian” not “other.”

REQUIEM SERVICE/HOKEHANKISD
Arrangements for Requiem Service, Altar Flowers and Candles should be made through the church office by Thursday at noon. In accordance with the canons of the Armenian Church, Requiem Services may not be performed on the five major feast days: Armenian Christmas, Easter, The Feast of the Transfiguration, The Feast of the Assumption of the Mother of God, and The Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

BAPTISMS AND CHRISMATIONS
All baptisms must be scheduled at least two months in advance by calling the church office. According to the Armenian Church canons, a Baptism may only be performed once in a person’s lifetime, provided such Baptism has been performed in a Christian Church and in the name of the Holy Trinity. At least one of the godparents must be a member of the Armenian Apostolic Orthodox Church.

WEDDINGS
Parishioners should contact the church office at least eight months in advance. A couple must contact St. Mary to confirm the availability of the Pastor and sanctuary prior to making any other arrangements. All weddings must follow the Canons of the Armenian Apostolic Orthodox Church and the laws of the DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. In accordance with Diocesan discipline mandated by the Primate, all Sacraments must be performed in the church sanctuary. The couple must meet with the Pastor at least once for pre-marital preparation and counseling. Weddings cannot be performed during Great Lent or Holy Week, or on the five major feast days: Armenian Christmas, Holy Easter, The Feast of the Transfiguration, The Feast of the Assumption of the Mother of God, and The Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

FUNERALS
Families should make arrangements with the funeral director of their choice, who will then contact the church office to arrange the funeral service. Funerals may not be performed on religious holidays, major feast days, Saturdays after 3:00 p.m., or on Sundays.

REMEMBER
A Venerable Christian Practice
